191-191-573-3400			The Young Performing Artists (YPAs) has requested funding in the amount of $1,131.70 from the Florida Arts License Plate program to help sustain and continue local programs. Multi - Project Description and funding amounts: School Cultural Art Education Program is our school-based program whose mission is to provide quality performances, entertainment, exhibitions, etc. to Sumter County's school age children. This program is our contribution to ensuring that Sumter's youth receive a well-rounded education, which includes the ability to understand, respond to, and talk about images. It is the program's intent to bring understanding that an art education stimulates language--spoken and written, have the power to entice students into the learning process, engage all the senses, involve creative discovery and self-expression and promotes enthusiasm for learning in children of all ages. Since 2001, the BOCC, along with other noted local sponsors, has helped YPAs Inc. present this program, which can include the 9 foot puppet production of classic children stories and a steel drum band. TERMS:	1,131.70	1,131.70
